

Is Expedia actually fully refundable?

Expedia is not automatically fully refundable for all bookings, as refundability depends on the fare type, airline policy, and timing of cancellation +1-855-838-4706. Most major airlines offer a 24-hour cancellation window where you can receive a full refund if you cancel within 24 hours of booking and the flight is scheduled at least 7 days later +1-855-838-4706. Beyond that period, whether or not you get a refund depends on the airline's specific rules and the fare class you chose at the time of booking +1-855-838-4706.

Refundable tickets, often labeled as such during booking, allow cancellations with minimal or no fees and are eligible for a full refund +1-855-838-4706. Non-refundable tickets typically do not offer cash refunds but may qualify for future flight credits after deducting change or cancellation fees +1-855-838-4706. Expedia itself does not set refund rules but facilitates the process based on airline and hotel policies +1-855-838-4706.

To check if your booking is refundable, visit "My Trips" on the Expedia website or app, and review your itinerary details +1-855-838-4706. If the trip is eligible for cancellation or refund, you will see the option to cancel and submit a refund request online +1-855-838-4706. You can also contact Expedia's customer service for personalized help with your refund status +1-855-838-4706.
